

Project Description

Pig's Eye Lake is a 600 acre lake located on the Mississippi River immediately downstream of downtown St. Paul. The lake is an important ecological amenity for the state and for the city of St. Paul, but has deteriorated over the years through industrializing and urbanization. A reconnaissance study of Pigs Eye Lake will identify possible steps for cleanup and habitat restoration of this important ecological area.